COLLEGIATE PARTY COMES CLOSE TO DEEP ELECTIONS

Only One Candidate From White "We" Party Elected In Finals Last Friday

Gibbons, Swenson Come Thru With Comfortable Leads Voting Conscience Light

The vote cast last Friday brought to light that Roy Gibbons will act as president of the student body next year, and Alvin Swenson will be president. They have both worked to several minor offices and that they have won the faith and support of their friends is very evident.

Following a week of intensive political rivalry between the We and College parties, the latter was successful in having five of its candidates elected. Roy Gibbons, president; Glen Dickson, 'Y' business manager; Alvin Swenson, vice-president; and Lowell Brown, ball team manager, of the 'Y' were white. Fred Moore of the We party was chosen director for the parties.

Enthusiasm characterized the work of the candidates. Gibbons was thrown near negative comments in fact, all the candidates showed good sportsmanship and, now both winner and loser shall join efforts for positive action.

In Friday's decisional each party gave its friends a number of well-aimed phrases were presented that probably affected the elections as much as anything else.

Entire Production, Costumes, Scenery, Etc. of Local Origin; News Comments Orchestra Does Good Work With Difficult Score; Special Prices Will Be Given Students

Originally will be the distinction of the local Dance Opera to be staged by the music department in a native Thursday afternoon, and give performance in the evening of the same day at 8:15 p. m.

The entire cast will be original to the last degree. The opera is a product of the efforts of Prof. William F. Hanson. The scenery is being painted and arranged by the art department, directed by Prof. E. H. Eastman. The dramatic phase of the work is under the direction of T. Earl Parlier. The costumes are entirely original. There will be no rented costumes. Every thing used in the production will be entirely a product of the B. Y. U. Quoting from the Deertown News of Saturday, April 28, it will appear that the best production either amateur or professional that has ever appeared in Provo "is not an over-estimation, according to those who have attended, and who will hear the stars as sung by the principals and the entire cast. It was said to be the best heard here.

The entire cast has spent several profitable hours rehearsing in the Theatre and the scenery is being painted and arranged by the art department, directed by Prof. E. H. Eastman.

The opera is distinguished by the cost and ensemble dances executed by the cast. The music is a product of the efforts of Prof. William F. Hanson. The scenery is being painted and arranged by the art department, directed by Prof. E. H. Eastman.

Prices are being arranged for students of the B. Y. U. There will be only twelve rows of $1.00 seats and the remainder will be $1.00, 75c and 50c.

Prof. LeRoy Robertson reports that the orchestra is doing excellent work.

APPRECIATION

I wish to extend my sincere appreciation to those who so loyally supported me during the recent political campaign, and to those of both parties who helped make it a clean fight. My congratulations and best wishes go to Roy Gibbons and his friends.

The B. Y. U. is a bigger and better school than ever before.

School Closes All Day To Permit Men To Work on Stadium and 'Y' on Hill

Seniors, Freshmen Assigned Whitewashing Letter; Men Will Work on Stadium

The student body council, with the championship held by the incoming president, Roy Gibbons, will have charge of 'Y' day.

All senior men are to report at the 'Y' with shovels to restate the border of the letter, clean it, and sprinkle it with lime. Due to a lack of water on the hill, the shovels will be white-washed, but dry lined. About one hundred volunteers report at the foot of the hill to carry the lime up to the letter, afterward they will take their places with fellow workers on the stadium.

Junior, sophomore, and high school fellows report on the stadium for action. Twelve seniors will be announced later.

All 'Y' day will be a community day. The 'Y' will be charged by the delegates.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAMS GIVEN BY PARTIES

Members of the junior class elected Merrill Christensen for president of the senior class for the coming year. Other candidates were Harold Canfield and Gary Webb.
